

ELINOR ROSS MEISKEY, North High Class of 1959

Grandfather, Mike and Grandmother Julie Watkins

Three of my grandparents emigrated from Karkov, Russia, one's family from Berlin. They all came through Ellis Island, then from N.Y. to Denver. My great-grandparents (Watkins) (separate photos) runaway horse fatal accident listed in Denver Post May 17, 1900. She died at 46. He passed away a few months later at 49, they say of a broken heart. Other photo grandma and grandpa Watkins on their wedding day. He made the car they sat behind (he was a painter.) My father and mother bought a house on Perry Street (their first) when I was 12 and so in North's district. Went to Colfax, Lake Jr. High, then on to North. My Dad, Sam Ross, graduated from North as well.

As they say, everyone has their Story.
